Scriptures of Unconditional Love

They are called Scriptures of Unconditional Love because GOD is Unconditional Love (1 John 4:16) and these Scriptures will help us to walk in the ways of Unconditional Love. We should live by Unconditional Love because Moses commanded it (Leviticus 19:18) and so did Jesus the Christ (Matthew 22:37-39). There are an initial thirty of these books to be published. Some are still in process but should be ready by the end of 2026. Once they are completed, more will be added.

The Twenty-One Witness books have been updated from their previous titles and translations using the South-London English that I grew up with. I also replaced the word “church” with “community of GOD’s people” and “Lord” with “RULER” as these are more accurate translations. These twenty-one were chosen because they do not contradict the Old or New Testaments in any way but rather provide us with a means to interpret the Holy Bible more accurately and with additional knowledge and understanding.

Nobody had ever told me what was going to happen when I submitted my life to Christ on a South-London Street in February 1974, aged 13. I had a physical Holy Spirit experience as an “atomic bomb of joy” exploded in my being. As I walked along the street, it was like I was floating three feet off the ground. That evening, a Spirit person visited me and wrote these words in my heart with light and fire, “Do not rebuke the church”. The end result of this encounter are these Scriptures of Unconditional Love.

The Four Gospels-In-Advance

The Gospel of Isaiah

The Gospel of King David

The Gospel of Moses

The Gospel of The Prophets

These are the books of Written Miracles. Ancient prophecies and predictions scattered throughout the Holy Bible's Old Testament concerning the appearance of Christ. These prophecies were made hundreds, some over a thousand, years before Christ appeared. They were all miraculously fulfilled with pin-point accuracy by Jesus of Bethlehem and Nazareth. There are so many of them that they could only have been put there by Holy Spirit. Certain Jewish scholars, who did not want Jesus to be their Messiah or Christ, started deleting the more obvious prophecies. You can find some of them restored in the books of the twenty-one witnesses. It is best to read the Gospels of Isaiah and King David first as they will strengthen your faith so that your heart can be prepared to receive the teachings and testimonies of the twenty-one witnesses.

The Twenty-One Witnesses

It is like we have twenty-one new witnesses presenting themselves before a court with new evidence and testimonies that GOD is real, and Christ is knowable. Some of these witnesses might have come forward from the era of 'Belonging to the Way' which was from AD 33 (Jesus's physical and spiritual resurrection from the dead) to AD 47 after which time those 'Belonging to the Way' were first called Christians. Most of the other witnesses belong to the pre-church era of the Original First Christians. This era spanned from AD 47 to AD 155 when Polycarp, the Disciple of John the Apostle, was executed for being a Christian by the Roman Empire. The Roman Church filled the vacuum with their own authority and 'brand' and were a powerful influence in starting the new 'church age'. Eventually, the twenty-one witnesses were banned from the New Testament in the fourth century by Emperor Constantine's Roman Church of Christendom, even though these scriptures were originally treasured by Christians of the first and second centuries. Fearing persecution, holders of the books managed to hide them and keep them safe. One thousand two hundred and fifty years later they began to be rediscovered again. Silence broken. Christianity unrestricted. Let them speak. Let us listen.

If they had been allowed to speak and were given their rightful place in the New Testament, they would have acted as salt and light to have a purifying effect on the religious authorities down the centuries. The world would not have experienced the abuses of zealous misguided religious powers. There would have been no crusades, no inquisitions, no witch hunts, no public burnings and no religious persecutions. There would have been no need for European colonialism either as the colonised nations would already be worshipping Christ, having destroyed their gods. The world would have been a better place as the unconditional love of Christ became the new currency that replaced cruelty. The Good Confession would have united the community of GOD's people and all the gods would have been annihilated. There would also have been no need for GOD to send the Qur'an. Having said that, the church has done a vital job in helping to get rid of many gods by either destroying or absorbing them. My hope is that these twenty-one witnesses will serve to destroy the remaining gods in the world leaving Devil Satan, who has won the right to remain here, as the sole survivor from the original sin rebellion. Hindus and similar, must abandon all their gods and worship Krishna alone. You can read the books of enlightenment when they have been published, to understand more about this. It is also now time for those churches that have absorbed pagan gods and practices, to get rid of them.

The church's shortcomings can be traced all the way back to AD 154 when Anicetus, Bishop of Rome, refused to accept the Nisan 14 Passover date that Polycarp, disciple of apostle John, and the other apostles observed, regardless of the day of the week it landed on. Anicetus instead kept to what we now know as the Easter dates which should be abandoned in favour of Nisan 14.

The twenty-one witnesses reveal to mankind that all the books of the Holy Bible should be read in the context of GOD versus the gods. In this war, each one of us finds ourselves at one of five stages.

Stage One: Individuals abandon their god(s). It is better to practice secular atheism than to worship demons.

Stage Two: Acknowledge GOD but don't agree with GOD. Presenting oneself regularly before GOD, either in a church or some other similar gathering will help your case with your Creator.

Stage Three: Agree with GOD but don't obey.

Stage Four: Try your best to obey GOD.

Stage Five: Full submission to GOD. This is perfection.

Enlightenment

The books of enlightenment explain the war that has been, currently is and will be raging in heaven and on earth until it is won by Christ. They also provide a whole lot more information, which when combined with the knowledge of the twenty-one witnesses, helps the reader to understand life, the universe and everything a whole lot better.

Introduction

This is my personal testimony that provides another witness to the truth. That the things written about in the Scriptures of Unconditional Love are all true and that nothing really exists outside of the truth. All these truths are certain, powerful and established on a sure footing. My desire through my personal witness is that both you and I will go forward in life, what's left of it, and glorify the Name of GOD which is EHYEH ASHER EHYEH.

The Prayer of Jesus

Come near and draw close to GOD and GOD will draw near to you (James 4:8).

The Spirit of Jesus is EHYEH ASHER EHYEH which is the Name GOD told Moses when asked (Exodus 3:14).

Jesus told us to use these words when talking to GOD:

“Our Father in Heaven,
May your Name be kept Holy,
Your Kingdom come,
Your Will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us enough bread to eat today.
Forgive us our sin as we have forgiven those who have sinned against us.
Do not allow us to be tempted, but deliver us from the Evil One.
Yours is the power and the glory forever and ever.”

The Witness of The Twelve Apostles.

PHILIP'S TESTIMONY

February 23 is a significant date for me and for all Christians. It was either on 22 February AD 156 or 23 February AD 155 that Polycarp, disciple of the Apostle John, was executed as GOD's witness by the Roman Empire. The experts are undecided on which one is the actual date. This is the only day that Christians are to observe apart from Christ's last evening meal which falls on Passover Eve, fourteenth day of Nissan. As you will see from the following events, I personally would like it to be 23rd February AD 155.

On Saturday morning 23 February 1974, I was with my best school friend, Rocko, walking through Purley, (Surrey, England) along the Brighton Road. I was thirteen and Rocko was fourteen. I kept the page of my diary which included this entry but threw the rest away, along with some other unimportant clutter, decades ago:

A man who was aged about twenty, fairly tall, white and looking like a hippy, stopped us. He was an evangelist from a Christian sect (schism) known as the Children of God. The schism later changed their name to the Family of Love in the midst of controversy, some of which appeared to stem from their leader, Moses David, misinterpreting the Scriptures to include forbidden sexual relations to be added to the definition of 'love'. The evangelist called himself Uriah

Painter. His first name was not really Uriah, but this was the new name given to him in accordance with a Scripture written in the Book of Revelation.

Uriah started telling us about Jesus the Christ and the Kingdom of GOD. I welcomed the Good News that Jesus was going to one day destroy Devil-Satan's kingdom along with the systems of man in this world then replace them all with his own kingdom and his own appointed government on earth instead.

Even at the age of thirteen I could see that there was something seriously wrong with this world. In 1974 the TV news was full of death, war, violence, destruction, famine, sickness, disease, pain, threat of apocalypse, extinctions, environmental disaster, vice, greed and the usual inhumanity to man by man. It made sense that there had to be a powerful evil mind behind it all inflicting mankind with suffering then manipulating, inciting and prompting men and women to carry out his evil ideas and plans – the renegade angel Devil-Satan. It was also logical that the only person in existence who could outwit and defeat him had to be Jesus the Christ, the one and only Son of GOD.

Uriah asked if he could pray over us and if we would like to invite Jesus the Christ into our hearts. I was very enthusiastic to do this and even though I was conscious of shoppers walking past giving us strange looks I said in my heart, "I'm not going to worry about them, I am going to give my life to Jesus and that settles it!" So, with this enthusiastic determination and commitment I repeated the prayer which Uriah had spoken and asked Jesus into my life. Uriah then laid his hands on our heads and said, "I baptise you in the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit." Then he spoke in tongues over us. I just accepted that this was the norm as nobody had ever told me about these things before. Nobody had told me what was going to happen next. I described it then and I will describe it the same now: it was like an 'atomic bomb of joy' had exploded in my heart. This joy was so powerful I could hardly contain the happiness and it just flowed and flowed, unstoppable. Creation's colours became brighter and I became deeply aware of the birds singing as they sounded louder than before. As I walked along the street it was like I was floating three feet off the ground. This lasted for days if not weeks.

That experience made such an impression on me that I have carried it with me all my life. About ten years later when I was in my twenties, I tried to capture it in cartoon form to give away to young people in the hope that they too would seek after this experience:

IT'S TRUE...! GOD EXISTS! YOU DON'T KNOW
WHERE HE COMES FROM OR HOW HE GOT HERE,
-BUT HE WANTS YOU TO EXPERIENCE HIM AND ENJOY HIM BY ALLOWING INTO YOUR HEART HIS

5v22-23

Back to 1974. What happened next was probably even more amazing. That evening, I was wide awake in my bed when I felt then saw this powerful Spirit person at the foot of my bed. The Spirit person wrote these words in my heart; 'Do not rebuke the church'. It felt like pure light and fire. I always wondered who it was. Was it Jesus? The Holy Spirit? An angel? From memory as I recall, it looked like a tall, well-built man, possibly wearing an ancient military uniform or one-piece cloak. It was not of a bright white appearance, but a whitish grey. I have always thought this to reflect my level of purity at the time.

That same night, I had a dream. There were three lights in a background of total darkness and another two lights came up to them and said something like, "You must leave him for he no longer belongs to you." The three lights then immediately moved away, and the two lights stayed. None of the lights were very bright. They were the same brightness as each other. They looked like stars in the night but were bigger, moving and hovering slightly. They did not shimmer and were like small balls of thick mist lit up with a 40-watt light bulb.

The next Saturday I went to Croydon and was standing near the top of Crown Hill at the London/Brighton Road intersection when a woman, who appeared to be in her forties, came up to me. She looked as though she had seen a ghost and said, "You know the truth you do."

I replied, "Yes, I know the truth."

Then she backed away, looking at me all the time as she went with her mouth wide open. I had a similar experience the next Saturday in the same place with a man who said something encouraging, but as I believe the message was meant for me only, I cannot share it.

I had similar but less powerful experiences seven years later in 1981, when I was serving with the British Army at Fort George, Strand Road, Derry-Londonderry in Ulster. In one of the experiences, I was waiting in line for the NAAFI (Navy, Army, Air Force Institute – the British Armed Forces bar, cafeteria and shop), when Tony Smith, a soldier from a different unit whom I had never met before, approached me quite randomly and said, "You're a Christian, aren't you?"

H-D (that was my nickname in the army): "Yes, I am. How did you know?"

Tony Smith: "I saw your aura. It's different from everyone else's around you. I can tell you are a Christian."

H-D: "What's an aura?"

Tony Smith: "It's like a display of spiritual colours that surround a person."

H-D: "How come you can see it?"

Tony Smith: "I used to travel the astral planes by transcendental meditation. I had a guru who taught me. I used to go out of my body and see other soldiers in the sangar on guard duty. I don't do it anymore after becoming a Christian. I was coming back down when I saw an angel waving his finger at me. I knew it was forbidden to do it as a Christian. Heaven is far above the highest astral plane."

H-D: "I thought all that was Satan's deception. So, it's all true then? Spiritual planes do exist."

Tony Smith: "Yes, it's all true."

Tony sent me a letter afterwards. Here is the first page:

Dear Phil,
How are 2-things is still keeping you in-fruits of 2he Spirit. Forgive me for not writing be-

Just before I met Tony, I had another major spiritual experience. My army unit was at the Fort George depot waiting to go out on a special operation. I saw a car draw up and felt a powerful Spirit voice in my heart tell me, "Something very big is about to happen." A man got out of the car and walked straight towards me. His name was Danny McLean from Limavady, and he was an Army Scripture Reader. I told him everything that had happened to me in 1974. He told me that if I was to die that night, he believed I would go to heaven. Those words lifted a massive oppressive weight of guilt from my shoulders. I felt so happy that I went back to my room and fell on the floor, laughing with joy for quite some time.

Danny also wrote to me:

Dear Phil
Greetings in the Name of the Dear Lord Jesus, with a prayer that this letter will find you happy rejoicing in the God of your Salvation.
Thank very much Brother for the Magazine which is great.
I was wondering if the squadron was formed in Ulster with all the Irish Emblems on it but anyway Phil thanks a million and if you have not yet moved to Fort George Try and let me know and I will come up to see you, Phil keep your eyes of yourself and on the Lord Jesus only listen to God's Word and Resist The Devil the Bible says and he will flee from you.

So Phil God Bless you and keep you safe from all harm and danger.

Proverbs - Chap-3 vv 5-6.

Your Brother in the Lord
Daddy McLean

A few weeks before I met Danny, I was on guard duty at our main base in Antrim. In the sanga was a book, left by another soldier, called Satan Is Alive and Well on Planet Earth by Hal Lindsey. This book was my first major exposure to Christian truth since 1974. The book opened my eyes to what was really going on and helped enlighten me to the fact that earth was a battleground between the forces of Satan and those of GOD. It encouraged and excited me to know that there were other people out there who had a good grasp on spiritual truths. On my next day off I went down to the Christian bookshop in Belfast and bought some more of Hal Lindsey's books. One of them was called The Liberation of Planet Earth. This book explained to me who Jesus the Christ was and what he had achieved by living on earth, dying, and being resurrected again. I became so impressed that I bought hundreds of these books and gave them out to anybody who would be prepared to read them. Some became Christians through it.

In 1991, just before I immigrated to New Zealand, I remember handing out hundreds of copies of these books to my workmates at a London insurance broking company I worked for, and also to many underwriters at Lloyds of London with whom I did business. In 1995 an Australian visitor to the company I worked for in New Zealand told me how he knew about the time that I handed out hundreds of 'Bibles' to the underwriters at Lloyds.

There were three stages that brought me back into a relationship with GOD. First, I found and read the book in the sangar. Second, I met Danny McLean and third, I met Tony Smith. That all happened in 1981 – the year I started going to the Elim Church in Antrim Town where I got baptised, and the year Bobby Sands MP along with ten Long Kesh prisoners, died on a hunger strike for their Irish Republican cause.

I believe it was part of GOD's plan for me to be a member of the 33 Independent Squadron R. E. (Royal Engineers) search team that found a large bomb in Derry- Londonderry. I believe that by finding it we saved many men, women, and children from being killed, maimed, or injured. It was the largest 'find' at that time and consisted of three-quarters of a ton of explosives, hand grenades, detonators, and detonator cord.

One thing my experiences taught me is the meaning of the words, "The wind blows wherever it will and the same is with the Spirit" (John 3:8) and "The true worshippers are those who worship in Spirit and in Truth" (John 4:23–24). My understanding of these words of Jesus the Christ is that when a person hears or reads the Word of GOD and welcomes the Word into their hearts, Holy Spirit comes to live inside them, as it did with me. Unfortunately, what then happens to many people when they accept the Truth, is to identify the Spirit and Truth with the religion, mosque, temple or church schism or denomination of Christendom that they heard it from. Whether Roman Catholic, Protestant, Evangelical, Pentecostal, Latter Day Saint (Mormon), Jehovah's Witnesses or whatever other church schism of Christendom they happened to be in at the time, they adopt their particular schism's teaching along with the Holy Spirit. This has caused confusion and disunity amongst the community of GOD's people, because many Christians have the Spirit in their hearts, but their minds have been corrupted by untruth. The consequence of this is that they fail to love other members of the community of God's people who belong to other religions or church schisms of Christendom.

Back to 1974. On Sunday I enthusiastically went to my local Anglican church. I got there early and sat down at the very front. The first people who talked to me were two old ladies who poked me on the shoulder and said, "Oi. That's our seat." I apologized and went to sit nearer to the back. By then more people were coming in. I could not understand why they were not as ecstatically happy as I was. They all looked so sad and serious. I was still partying with heaven and walking three feet off the ground. I could not understand why nobody felt as I did. It was a disappointment. I also could not understand why the church building was decorated with weird furniture, picture windows and strange crosses all over the place. One cross had a grotesque figure of Jesus on it. I really could not relate to it.

I waited patiently until the service had ended and politely waited until everyone had left, and I was the last to leave. I shook the vicar's hand and announced enthusiastically, "I have become a Christian!" Unenthusiastically, he replied, "Yes?"

It threw me. I did not expect that. I assumed he was going to be just as enthusiastic and extremely happy for me. So I said, "I'd like to help out at Cane Hill Hospital." (Cane Hill was a psychiatric hospital. I associated serving Jesus as wanting to spend time doing good for him). "Well, I suggest you go to the town hall and talk to the town clerk," he replied.

As a thirteen-year-old I had no idea what a town hall or town clerk was and how you could find them. It appeared to me that my experience was a personal one and that nobody else could relate to it. So, as far as I was concerned it was me and Jesus versus the world system.

One thing I have always kept in my heart are the words the angel wrote in it, 'Do not rebuke the church'. As a thirteen-year-old I had no idea what these words meant. I had always wondered how I was ever going to be in a position to ever rebuke the church. It had been a complete mystery. I suspect it might have something to do with Scriptures of Unconditional Love and opposition to it.

I had also stored in my heart the word from the woman in Croydon who said, "You know the truth." All my life I had searched to find the truth and what truth really is. Now that I have put together Scriptures of Unconditional Love, I have decided to back myself and stand firm in what I believe to be the truth.

It is a mystery why GOD didn't pick someone better than me. My guess is that I got the job simply because I was in the right place at the right time and was prepared to get the job done in spite of the opposition that would inevitably come my way. It might well be the case that GOD had to give the job to me at thirteen, because if he had waited much longer, I would have become corrupted by the world and involved in intentional sin. It is sad to have to confess that this is exactly what happened. I allowed myself to become corrupted by the world and have lived much of my life in intentional sin. I am sure GOD would have passed me by for this job due to my sin if He had waited much longer.

Many people who know me will be in utter disbelief that someone as bad as me could be given such a job as this. I confess that I have buried my talent in the ground and wasted much of my life in fruitless selfishness. But now, fifty years later, I have decided to accept GOD's gracious gifts of repentance and forgiveness. I have dug up my talent and will display it as light rather than hide it under a bushel.

As The Witness of Two Ways of Life & Death says, "Should you be able to carry this entire load for the RULER then you will be perfect. Should you not be able, then do what you can." I will do my best and on 22nd September 2022 at 5.42pm, I signed The Treaty of Unconditional Love.

Doing Our Best

After leaving the British Army in 1982, I carried on attending an Elim Pentecostal Church. At one time I became an honorary Catholic during a visit as a 'helper' to Lourdes in France. When I got married in 1987 and we had our first child in 1990, we attended an evangelical church in Croydon. In 1991 we emigrated to New Zealand and over the years had three more children. We tried to raise them as Christians in an Open Brethren Church in Te Awamutu and later on in their lives at an Evangelical Church in Pukekohe.

Whilst in England, my search for truth never ceased and before I emigrated to New Zealand, I had come to the conclusion that out of the thousands of church denominations the right one must be the one that was taught by the Apostles or the Apostle's disciples. I began my search for the earliest Christian literature.

The lady owner of a Christian bookshop in Hamilton gave me a book called Early Christians Speak by Everett Ferguson when she found out my appetite for early Christian literature. This opened a whole new stream of material to read and track down. The most fascinating was a group of writings called The Apostolic Fathers. Many of the writers knew the Apostles and the quality of their writings showed this. I was so impressed that I felt compelled to update the various versions I found into modern English and self-publish them as a sequel to the Holy Bible in 2010. I called the book Holy Bible 2. This did not go down well with many people, so I withdrew the book, added a few more books and a lot more information, improved the English again and have now re-launched it as the thirty books of Scriptures of Unconditional Love.

About ten years before Holy Bible 2, I actually printed the Two Ways of Life and Death as a four-page brochure and had it circulated to 5,000 homes in Auckland:

'THE TEACHING'

This document that you are reading is known as THE TEACHING. It was only rediscovered in 1873. THE TEACHING could have been written as early as AD60 - within 30 years of Jesus Christ's death and resurrection from the dead!

As it was not written by Jesus Christ's Disciples (The Apostles), it cannot be added to the Bible today. But it was written by the Apostles' disciples and held in such high regard that it was included in many Bibles of the first Christians.

Now, "CHRIST IS COMING!" is making it available for general circulation, free of charge throughout the world, so that everyone has the chance to learn from THE TEACHING and get ready for Christ's coming!

For it is more strong evidence that what the Bible says about Jesus Christ is really true. THE TEACHING provides us with a powerful additional witness that the Christ really-

1. Came down from Heaven
2. Was born of a virgin
3. Grew up through childhood and did miracles
4. Was crucified and died
5. Rose from the dead physically and spiritually
6. Ascended into Heaven
7. Will return to rule the world and judge all people who ever lived - rewarding the obedient, but destroying those who have opposed him

Now this is the way of life:

First, "you shall love God, who made you";
Second, "your neighbour as yourself";
Third "do to others what you would have them do to you".

The teaching of these commands are: "Bless those who curse you", "pray for your enemies", and "fast for those who persecute you". "If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even 'sinners' love those who love them". But "you must love those who hate you", and you will not have an enemy.

"You shall love God who made you"

Abstain from physical and bodily cravings.

"If someone hits you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also", and you will be perfect. If someone "forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles"; "if someone takes your cloak, do not stop him from taking your tunic also"; "if someone takes from you what belongs to you, do not demand it back", for you cannot do so.

"Give to everyone who asks you, and do not demand it back", for the Father wants something from his own gifts to be given to everyone. Blessed is the one who gives according to the command, for such a person is innocent. Woe to the one who receives. If, on the one hand, someone who is in need receives, this person is innocent. But the one who does not have need, will have to explain why and for what purpose he took it. Then upon being imprisoned will be interrogated about what he has done, and will not get out until he has paid back all he has owed. But it has also been said concerning this: "Let your gift sweat in your hands until you know to whom to give it".

The second section of the teaching is: "You shall not murder; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not corrupt boys; you shall not be sexually promiscuous; you shall not steal"; you shall not practice magic; you shall not engage in sorcery; you shall not abort a child or kill an infant.

"You shall love your neighbour as yourself"

"You shall not covet your neighbour's possessions; you shall not commit perjury; you shall not give false testimony"; you shall not speak evil; you shall not hold a grudge. You shall not be double-minded, or double-tongued, for the "double-tongue" is a deadly snare. Your word must not be false or meaningless, but confirmed by action.

You shall not be greedy or avaricious, a hypocrite or malicious or arrogant.

"YOU SHALL NOT ABORT A CHILD"

You shall not hatch evil plots against your neighbour. You shall not hate anyone; instead you shall reprove some, pray for some and some you shall love more than your own life.

CHRIST IS COMING!

My child, flee from evil of every kind, and from everything resembling it. Do not become angry - for anger leads to murder. Do not be jealous or quarrelsome or hot-tempered, for all these things breed murders.

My child, do not be lustful, for lust leads to sex outside of marriage. Do not use indecent language or let your eyes roam, for all these things breed adultery.

My child, do not be a fortune-teller, since it leads to idolatry. Do not be an enchanter or an astrologer or a magician, or even desire to see them, for all these things breed idolatry.

My child, do not be a liar, since lying leads to theft. Do not be greedy for gain or conceited, for all these things breed thefts.

My child, do not be a grumbler, since it leads to blasphemy.

Do not be arrogant or evil-minded, for all these things breed blasphemies. Instead, be humble, for "the humble shall inherit the earth".

Be patient and merciful and innocent and quiet and good, and revere always the words, which you have heard. Do not exalt yourself or permit your soul to become arrogant. Your soul shall not associate with the lofty, but live with the righteous and the humble.

Accept as good the things that happen to you, knowing that nothing transpires apart from God.

My child, night and day remember the one who preaches God's word to you and honour him as though he were the Lord. For wherever the Lord's nature is preached, there the Lord is.

Moreover, you shall seek out daily the company of other Christians, that you may find support in their words.

"Seek out daily the company of other Christians"

PERSUADED TO BECOME A CHRISTIAN!

THE PRAYER OF SALVATION

Pray to God your Father this prayer of salvation (used by the first Christians)

"Dear God Almighty, who created the heaven, earth, sea, and everything in them. Help me, have mercy on me, wipe away my sins, and save me in the present and in the coming age through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory and might forever. Amen."

THE TEACHING - How to use it

The first Christians used THE TEACHING as a manual of moral instruction for those who wanted to join them. For example consider the first instruction "You shall love God, who made you". The full meaning of this command along with examples of how to apply this command in life practically, would be explained to the new Christian. One way to love God who made you, is to obey Jesus Christ in everything. A practical example could be to tell others the Word of Christ by freely distributing this document.

After reviewing all of THE TEACHING with the new Christian, and being satisfied that he or she really did "agree with the apostles", the new Christian would be baptised. Then he or she would be invited to join all the other Christians (the local church) in the Thanksgiving Eucharist (more about this in future issues).

Helpful explanations of each instruction will be provided @ www.christiscoming.org

You shall not cause division, but shall make peace between those who quarrel. You shall judge righteously; you shall not show partiality when reproving sins. You shall not waver with regard to your decisions.

Do not be someone who stretches out his hands to receive, but withdraws them when it comes to giving. If you earned something by working with your hands, you shall give a ransom for your sins. You shall not hesitate to give, nor shall you grumble when giving, for you shall yet come to know who is the good paymaster of the reward. You shall not turn away from someone in need, but shall share everything with your brother, and not claim that anything is your own. For if you are sharers in what is imperishable, how much more so in perishable things!

You shall not withhold your hand from or neglect your responsibility to your son or your daughter, but from their youth you shall teach them the fear of God.

You shall not give orders to your slave or servant girl (whose hope is in the same God as you) when you are angry - lest they cease to fear the God who is over you both. For he comes to call not with regard to reputation but upon those whom the Spirit has prepared. And you slaves shall be submissive to your masters in respect and fear, as to a symbol of God.

You shall hate all hypocrisy, and everything that is not pleasing to the Lord. You must not reject the Lord's commandments, but must guard what you have received, do not add or take away anything. In church you shall confess your sins, and you shall not approach your prayer with a bad conscience. This is the way of life.

The way of Death

But the way of death is this:

First of all, it is evil and completely cursed; murders, adulteries, lusts, sex outside of marriage, thefts, idolatries, magic arts, sorceries, robberies, false testimonies, hypocrisy, duplicity, deceit, arrogance, malice, stubbornness, greed, indecent language, jealousy, audacity, pride, boastfulness.

It is the way of persecutors of good people, of those hating truth, loving a lie, not knowing the reward of righteousness, not adhering to what is good or to righteous judgement. Being on the alert not for what is good but for what is evil, from whom gentleness and patience are far away. Loving worthless things, pursuing reward, having no mercy for the poor, not working on behalf of the oppressed, not knowing him who made them. Murderers of children, corrupters of God's creation, turning away from someone in need, oppressing the afflicted, advocates of the wealthy, lawless judges of the poor, utterly sinful.

May you be delivered, children, from all these things!

DO WHAT YOU CAN!

See that no one leads you astray from this way of the teaching, for such a person teaches you without regard for God. For if you are able to bear the whole yoke of the Lord, you will be perfect. But if you are not able, then do what you can.

(The Teaching continues with instructions on eating meat sacrificed to idols, baptism, fasting, the Thanksgiving Eucharist and warnings against false prophets. The full version can be found at www.christiscoming.co.nz)

INSTRUCTIONS -

For groups of Christians (Local churches)

...On Sunday meet together for the Thanksgiving Eucharist, having first confessed your sins so that your sacrifice may be pure. Let no one who has a quarrel with a companion join you until they have been reconciled, so that your sacrifice may not be defiled. For this is the sacrifice concerning which the Lord said, "In every place and time offer me a pure sacrifice, for I am a great King, says the Lord, and my name will be great among the nations."

Appoint bishops and deacons worthy of the Lord. Men who are humble, not greedy for gain, true and approved, to carry out for you the ministry of the prophets and the teachers. You must not despise them, for they are your honoured men.

Furthermore, correct one another, not in anger but in peace, as you find in the Gospel. If anyone wrongs his neighbour, let no one speak to him, nor let him hear a word from you, until he repents.

As for your prayers and acts of charity and all your actions, do them all just as you find it in the Gospel of our Lord.

CHRIST IS COMING!

"Watch" over your life: "do not let your lamps go out, and do not be unprepared, but be ready, for you do not know the hour when our Lord is coming." Gather together frequently, seeking the things that benefit your souls, for all the time you have believed will be of no use to you if you are not found perfect in the last time.

For in the last days false prophets and corrupters will abound, the sheep will be turned into wolves, and love will be turned into hate. As lawlessness increases, they will hate, persecute and betray one another. Then the deceiver of the world will appear as a son of God and "will perform signs and miracles" and the earth will be delivered into his hands. He will commit abominations the likes of which have never happened before. Then all humankind will come to the fiery test, and "many will fall away" and perish; but "those who endure" in their faith "will be saved" by him who was cursed. And "then there will appear the signs" of the truth: First, the sign of an opening in heaven

Second, the sign of the sound of a trumpet

Third, the resurrection of the dead - but not of all, rather, as it has been said, "The Lord will come, and all his Christians with him." Then the world "will see the Lord coming upon the clouds of the sky." THE END

THE TEACHING

Also known as "The Didache", this document was unknown until its discovery in Constantinople (Istanbul) in 1873 and its publication in 1883 by Philotheos Bryennios.

It was revered by many early Christians as equal in importance to the books of the New Testament. Clement of Alexandria, Origen and Didymus the Blind used it as Scripture.

It quotes numerous verses found in the Bible, and you can almost imagine one of Christ's apostles dictating this manual for moral instruction and church practice to enthusiastic local Christians!

Having been widely read by the first Christians, it should also be widely read today. Every person, every family, every community and every culture in the world will benefit from THE TEACHING. Some critics have dated it towards the end of the first century, however many scholars place it nearer the time of the Apostle Paul - due to the simplicity of prayers, concern to separate Christian practice from Jewish rituals, the two-fold structure of bishops & deacons and the existence of travelling apostles and prophets.

Nature proclaims Creation

NATURE CORNER * NATURE CORNER *

"For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities - his eternal power and divine nature - have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse" - Apostle Paul

Billions of fossils have now been discovered. All those found are of highly complex animals with NO sign of graduated development from lower forms. There is NO evidence of even one kind changing into another and this is true between EVERY major plant and animal known. All categories of complex things appear abruptly!

Look around you today, and you will find there are NO transitional forms in process of evolution - nor have there ever been. The balance of probabilities is in favour of creation. It is beyond reasonable doubt that God created all things. God has a purpose for his creation and it is our responsibility to discover his purpose for our lives. God has the right of ownership over us, and the right to call us to give an account for our lives - he has already set a date when he will do this!

PERSONAL ACTION PLAN

1. Pray to God the Prayer of Salvation on page 2
2. Join a church with Christians who "agree with the apostles."
3. "Do what you can" to obey Christ by following the apostles' teaching
4. Help fulfil Christ's Mission Statement, by distributing the Word of Christ...

LET THE WHOLE WORLD KNOW

- Contribute to the translation of this document & website into another language, so that the whole world has the opportunity to hear the Word of Christ.
- Look up "MISSION NEEDS" on the website to see how else to become a partner in this mission.

JESUS CHRIST'S MISSION STATEMENT

Jesus Christ gave everybody a mission statement he said:

"Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation....make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded of you...."

Distribute the Word of Christ

"...Faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word of Christ ... The important thing is that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is preached" - The Apostle Paul

"Go to the street corners and invite (into the Kingdom of Heaven) anyone you find.' So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, both good and bad!"
- Jesus Christ

You can help

- * Use this copy or download one from the website, to make or print copies for distribution.
- * Give them to anyone and everyone, good and bad!
- * If you can't distribute them yourself, then every week or month, set aside a sum of money in keeping with your income (over and above your usual giving) and send it to "Christ Is Coming" who will use it to distribute the Word of Christ on your behalf.

- Our goal is to empower mothers and fathers to voluntarily reject abortion as a means of dealing with the crisis of unwanted pregnancies.

I received both letters of support thanking me and letters of opposition condemning me. Shown below is one letter of opposition. In view of the information that is freely and conveniently accessible through the internet, much in my brochure can be verified after a little research. I therefore have only responded to the two main challenges.

Greetings to you in the name of The Lord Jesus Christ.

This is in answer to the pamphlet I found in my letter box this morning. I have not time to cover all points but I will start by saying cults always have a part of the truth.

I was amazed to think that there are people who probably are really believing that what they are promoting is not adding to The Bible, the only word of God.

You say ,The Teaching was written by the Apostles disciples and that it was held in such high regard that it was included in many Bibles of the first christians,without giving one shred of proof. You are treading on dangerous ground when you start adding to the scriptures and all the time trying to convince people you are not. This paper will put off more people coming to know the grace of God than any other.

Ephesians 2.8"For by grace you have been saved through faith and NOT of yourselves. It is a gift from God(salvation)

Romans 8:1"There IS no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus,who walk not after the flesh but after the Holy Spirit,"
:2 for the law of the Spirit of life has made me FREE from the law of sin and death(law of Moses)

John 8:32 The words of Jesus "And you shall KNOW the Truth and the TRUTH shall set you free". Many scriptures about coming under the Law of Liberty Once re-born of the Spirit of God.

John 3:3 and 3:5 "You must be born again etc. Unless one is born again of the Spirit you will Never see the kingdom of God- or enter the Kingdom of God"

I did not see one reference to the Holy Spirit of God!!! in your paper. John 14:26 The words of Jesus--- "-the helper, The HOLY Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, HE will teach you All things--"

John 15: 26 "When the Helper comes whom I will send you from the Father HE will confirm, bear witness of me". Why do you not mention The Holy Spirit but keep quoting from something of which you have given no proof that it is in existence or indeed that it has ever existed and even if it had we, real born-again christians would never take any teaching not written in the WORD of God.

The Teaching??

How is it that you are the only "church" that has it ?? Is it the same as the Mormans who have added their teachings of Joseph Smith and now have their own bible, The Book of Mormon ? Any 'church" that claims to have new teaching outside the Bible is a cult.

The Didache?? Discovered in Istanbul in 1873 ??

By whom and WHERE exactly? Published by Philotheos Bryennios? What an impressive name! Who was he? Anyone can publish anything to push there own agenda. REVERED by many early christians as equal in importance to the New Testament?!!!! Who were these MANY early christians? Clement of Alexandria?? Origen? Didymas the blind?? Spiritually blind would be right! that's if such a person existed and even if he did how do you come by all this new information? Having been widely read, so you say, it should be widely read to-day? Proof that it was widely read please. Many scholars place it near the time of Paul?? Oh PLEASE!! Who ARE these Many scholars?

Under heading-DO WHAT YOU CAN----- "see that no-one leads you astray from this WAY of teaching for such a person teaches you without regard for God" The arrogance of the cult.

Jesus said I AM THE WAY, I AM THE TRUTH AND THE LIGHT.... NO ONE COMES TO THE FATHER BUT BY ME". Isn't That plain enough? Be very careful. You are adding to the WORD OF GOD.

*I hope you are still with me! I can see your hearts are toward God but stick to the Word and don't chase after other Teachings. Satan - the Great Deceiver - roams around seeking to devour.
May the Lord Jesus cause His Light to shine upon you.*

Objection 1: The Work of a Cult

One dictionary defines cult as:

"A religion or religious sect generally considered to be extremist or false, with its followers often living in an unconventional manner under the guidance of an authoritarian, charismatic leader."

I can't be a cult because I am the only individual promoting this at this stage. Those who know me will testify that I am far from being a particularly charismatic person. They would witness that I certainly am not an authoritarian leader. I try and encourage the best out of people through my example and through reasoning with them in a spirit of humble gentleness.

This writing was honoured and accepted by the first original Christians of the 1st and 2nd centuries. Read the Witness of Two Ways of Life & Death to discover the truth of this. Along with the other twenty-one EHYEH's Witnesses books of the Scriptures of Unconditional Love, it teaches us about the faith and practice of the very first original Christians.

It only officially fell out of favour with the church in AD 367 which was 334 years after the death and resurrection of Jesus the Christ. If you are reading this in AD 2024, that makes it equivalent to as far back as the year 1690. The fact is, it is the churches of the church age, since AD 155 to date, that have, through lack of knowledge, deviated from the pure original way of truth. As an accidental consequence, the hundreds of church denominations around today all have become modern-era Christian cults. Yet it is these churches that have guarded the Scriptures down through the ages and delivered to the world the Christian faith.

Objection 2: Adds to the Bible which is the only Word of God.

The very last verse in the Gospel of John states, "Jesus did many other things. If they were all written down in books, I don't think there would be enough room in the whole world to contain them."

John might well have envisaged the twenty-seven books of the New Testament, as authorised in AD 367 by the church, as being the full extent of books that overflowed the world - but I doubt it. Here is one book of the Scriptures of Unconditional Love's eight books that are, or were, part of the New Testament. Four of these books are included in Codex Sinaiticus which is the earliest New Testament in existence and is dated around AD 325 which is decades before the twenty-seven New Testament books were set in AD 367.

What this book, and all of the other twenty-one Witnesses of EHYEH do, is add value to the Holy Bible. Without them, it would be impossible to interpret the Holy Bible, and especially the twenty-seven books of the New Testament, accurately. This is true. EHYEH's twenty-two witnesses knew the Apostles or their disciples and learned from them. No church or person since has been able to interpret the Scriptures more accurately than them for no church or person has heard first-hand from the Apostles or their disciples.

In 2015, I self-published my great-uncle's WWI war diary. It deserves a mention here because Oswald was a decent Church of England man. He had a good conscience and was highly principled. His Christian values shone through. He used to teach class at chapel, presumably Sunday School and Bible Study. The book, Triumph on the Western Front, is mentioned at the back of these publications. It is supported by a website www.triumphonthewesternfront.com where the reader can download a free version.

What also deserves a mention is the uncanny similarities between my great-uncle Oswald and myself. I also wrote a battlefield guide for the website to go with the book. Here is a relevant extract:

Philip Holdway-Davis (Compiler & Editor)

A novice amateur WWI historian and general insurance industry worker, born in Croydon, London, England.

As a great-nephew of Oswald H Davis, I am naturally passionate about his Great War Diary and other works. After all, I grew up with the knowledge of Oswald's War Diary which both my parents held in high honour although they did not have a copy of it. I only managed to get a copy in 2005. Oswald is certainly the family hero.

When I finally got around to reading it what struck me first was the fact the parade ground commands, drill, army way of life and banter has not changed much since Oswald joined in 1916 and I joined in 1978. Oswald could have borrowed a 70s British Army uniform and joined my troop on parade, and I could have done vice versa. We would have blended in and got away with it. Oswald would have been sent immediately to the sick bay for a dental check and I would have had to run around the parade ground five times with a rifle above my head to lose some weight.

The second thing that struck me was the amazing coincidences. I have served in three regiments: The Honourable Artillery Company (HAC), the Royal Engineers and the Royal Green Jackets. It was in the Royal Engineers where most of the similarities lie:

- Oswald left his work and joined as a volunteer to fight the menacing German Imperial Army – I left my work and joined as a volunteer to fight the menacing Irish Republican Army.
- Oswald was on active service in the Great War for three years 1916–1918 – I was on active service in the Northern Ireland War for three years 1980–1982.
- After the war, Oswald returned to his old job – after my Northern Ireland time was up, I returned to my old job.
- Oswald joined the ranks – so did I.
- Oswald joined the Royal Engineers – I had no knowledge of this when I joined. Oswald and I are ‘Ubique Sapper’ pals.
- Oswald was an RE Pigeon Despatch Rider Specialist – I was an RE Search Team Specialist.
- Oswald was attached to the ANZACs – I emigrated to New Zealand aged 31 and live some of the time in Australia with my family.

- Oswald is second from the right in this photo of five with bikes and pigeon baskets.

- I am second from the right in this photo of five with Pigs (Armoured Cars) and IRA Bomb.

You can see why I believe this was meant to be.

Back to the Scriptures of Unconditional Love. Whilst writing, updating, researching and re-editing the books, news came to me of a group of Māori women prophets called Pacific Pearls. On Waitangi Day, 6 February 2019, they assembled a Hikoi (a communal walk or march) at Te Tii Marae at Waitangi and I joined them. I knew that GOD was going to do something significant. The parade assembled at the entrance to the Marae and were then invited onto the Marae. Later that day, we journeyed to Oihi Bay where the first Gospel sermon was preached in New Zealand. The assembly were going to dedicate the Hikoi to GOD. I was honoured to raise the banner of Ihu Karaiti over the Māori women prophets as they dedicated the Hikoi to GOD. Holy Spirit was present with angels in attendance.

Now that the Māori women prophets had opened a kind of portal into heaven, the obvious thing to do was to become a conduit and channel this Holy Spirit and angel activity into the Scriptures of Unconditional Love in order for Holy Spirit to be poured out from it for healing.

The first step was to prepare a deployment base from which to carry out sorties. The enemy is everywhere, and one can expect resistance when invading their territory. Due to accidental circumstances beyond my control, I had recently started to live in Te Atatū Peninsula which appeared to be an ideal location to surrounded with angels. Te Atatū means The Dawn and was so named in 1910 by retired Anglican Māori Reverend Jackson Bennett. It used to be called (Five Mile Road) Henderson Point prior. I surrounded the peninsula with five angels. These fortresses are called Angel of the North, Angel of the South, Angel of the East, Angel of the West and Angel of the Centre. They are still there to this very day and will remain at their post until the RULER, Jesus of Bethlehem and Nazareth appears again to run the world.

The Law of Holy Spirit Magic provides for every person in the world to have exactly the same rights as I do in stationing angels anywhere in the world. This is how you do it:

Step 1:

Make sure you have a helper with you to agree the Rules of Law and Instructions, for the Christ said, “I confirm that if two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for, my Father in heaven will do it for you. Whenever two or three of you get together in my name, I am there with you” (Matthew 18:19–20).

Step 2:

Pick your stations or spots to place the angels of GOD.

Step 3:

Recite the following Rules of Law from the Scriptures and Spoken Word instructions. It is best to speak clearly, firmly, but quietly. There is no need to raise your voice or make gestures with your hands or body. The Law is that angels are compelled to obey the Word. Be humble and gentle when speaking. Be calm as you are representing the full power of Heaven when reciting these words. You can be any age to take the lead or help in this (providing you know your right hand from your left).

Rule of Law: All of the angels are mere spirits, despatched under orders to help those who GOD will save. This is a fact (Hebrews 1:14).

Spoken Word: Angels of GOD, you are sent to help us because GOD will save us. Stand by for your instructions.

Helper: I agree. Let it be.

Rule of Law: “I tell you this, you are now named Peter, and on this rock, I will build my Community, and the gates of hell will not win against it. I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you refuse to allow on earth will be refused in heaven, and whatever you allow on earth will be allowed in heaven” (Matthew 16:18–19).

Spoken Word: Angels of GOD, I instruct one of you to remain at this post and not to desert it. No angel of Devil-Satan can defeat you. I only allow angels of GOD within these perimeters. All angels of Devil-Satan are refused the right to stay within the perimeter and must leave within twenty-four earth hours from now.

Helper: I agree. Let it be.

Rule of Law: “No one can break into a strong man’s house to steal his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. After that, he can ransack his house” (Mark 3:27).

Instruction: Angel of GOD, I hereby bind and render harmless and helpless the angels of Devil-Satan. You are now empowered to eject the angels of Devil-Satan within the perimeters. They will be powerless to resist you.

Helper: I agree. Let it be.

Rule of Law: That night the angel of GOD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp. Early the next morning there were all these dead bodies – just corpses (Isaiah 37:36).

Spoken Word: Angel of GOD you are instructed to move inside the perimeter to search and destroy all resistant angels of Devil-Satan.

Helper: I agree. Let it be.

Rule of Law: GOD did not spare angels when they rebelled, but sent them to the gloomy dungeons below hell, chaining them in darkness until the judgment (2 Peter 2:4).

Spoken Word: Angels of GOD. You are to allow the angels of Devil-Satan to escape for twenty-four earth hours after this instruction is given. Those foolish enough to disobey and remain are to be chained by you and taken to the gloomy dungeons below hell until judgement.

Helper: I agree. Let it be.

Rule of Law: The seventy returned with joy and jubilation. They said, “RULER, with your power even the demons submit to us!” Jesus replied, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Know that I have given you authority to trample down snakes, scorpions and all the forces of the Enemy. Nothing will harm you. However, do not be glad that the spirits submit to you, instead be glad that your names are written in heaven” (Luke 10:17–20).

Spoken Word: Angels of GOD, always remain conscious of your power, authority and instruction. Allow no demons or angels of Devil-Satan to enter inside this perimeter but allow them to freely leave, never to return again. Do your job and be strong.

Helper: I agree. Let it be.

Step 4:

After stationing and instructing the angels of GOD you need to feed them. Scriptures of Unconditional Love explains how we can feed angels of GOD:

The Shepherd: “What did you eat?”

Hermas: “I dined on the words of the RULER all night long.”

Anyone can feed the angels of GOD who have been placed at a station. You can speak to them from far off or better still, visit their station and recite to them Holy Spirit Words of Scripture – especially the Words of Jesus the RULER. Angels will feed on these Words, as you will too, and both you and the angels will become more empowered with the Holy Spirit.

You are to instruct angels only. Do not try and hold a conversation with them and do not ask them for anything.

Never worship them for that is an evil act. Tell them what to do in accordance with the Will of GOD.

Step 5:

Regularly remind all angels that the angels of Devil-Satan have had diminishing power ever since the Star appeared as Scriptures of Unconditional Love tells us:

A star shone in heaven brighter than all the other stars, its light could not be described, and its strangeness struck everyone with astonishment. The sun, moon and the rest of the stars all formed a band around it yet the star itself far outshone them all. There was much bewilderment about the origin of this strange phenomenon, the like of which had never been seen before. Because of it, magic arts lost their power and witchcraft stopped working. The ignorance associated with evil disappeared and the ancient kingdom of evil was abolished. It was GOD appearing in human form to bring to us eternal life which had never been given before. What GOD had planned and prepared beforehand now began to take effect. Everything was being shaken up and there was great confusion because the abolition of death was taking place.

The angels of Devil-Satan will want to keep their heads down and not display any obvious supernatural activity for fear of being chained and sent to the gloomy dungeons.

They are now more scared of you and your Holy Spirit-given authority than you should be of them.

Step 6:

Now that the perimeter is secured and the angels of GOD are supporting you, invite everyone inside the perimeter to engage with EHYEH ASHER EHYEH and experience the Kingdom of GOD. For “whoever calls on the Name of the RULER will be saved” (Joel 2:32, Acts 2:21 & Romans 10:3). The SoUL Song has miracle Holy Spirit Words of GOD that will connect everyone to GOD. It is merely a matter of letting people know about its truth and power. That is our job – to go around setting free all those spirits in their prisons and liberate them back to GOD, the Father/Mother of their spirits.

The Star of Bethlehem

On 21122020 or 21 December 2020, the Scriptures of Unconditional Love website www.thesoulsong.co.nz was officially launched. It was also the same day as the appearing of the Star of Bethlehem. According to some astronomers the conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn, where the two planets lined up so closely, they appeared to be one single star, was likely to have been seen by the New Testament's wise men at the time of the birth of Christ.

In 1603, Johannes Kepler saw the conjunction and noted that according to astronomical calculation, there was a triple conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn in 7 BC. Knowing that King Herod died in 4 BC, Kepler theorised that the wise men had also seen the conjunction along with the subsequent conjunctions with Mars in 6 BC followed by conjunctions with the sun, agreeing with astrological tables.

In 1925, German scholar P. Schnabel deciphered Babylonian cuneiform writing and discovered that Jupiter and Saturn were shown appearing over several months in 7 BC. Modern astronomers have since discovered that the threefold conjunction was particularly visible in the Mediterranean area. Scriptures of Unconditional Love (SoUL) confirms this:

A star shone in heaven brighter than all the other stars, its light could not be described, and its strangeness struck everyone with astonishment. The sun, moon and the rest of the stars all formed a band around it yet the star itself far outshone them all. There was much bewilderment about the origin of this strange phenomenon, the like of which had never been seen before. Because of it, magic arts lost their power and witchcraft stopped working. The ignorance associated with evil disappeared and the ancient Kingdom of Evil was abolished. It was GOD appearing in human form to bring to us eternal life which had never been given before. What GOD had planned and prepared beforehand now began to take effect. Everything was being shaken up and there was great confusion because the abolition of death was taking place.

I believe the wise men (astrologers from the east) were mathematically adept astrologers. When the conjunctions in the heavens started happening, they realised something significant was about to happen on Earth. They had been alerted in 12 BC by Halley's Comet. When they set out, they saw something far more amazing in the Star mentioned above. It could possibly have been a natural phenomenon like a Novae or birth of a new star, but I think it was more likely that EHYEH created the Star out of nothing for the special occasion of the birth of Christ.

The Countdown Clock

The home page of the website www.thesoulsong.co.nz has a second-by-second NZ-time countdown to the 3pm 5 April 2033 (or 23 March 2021 depending on the Julian and Gregorian calendar calculations) 2,000-year anniversary of the physical and spiritual resurrection of Jesus of Bethlehem and Nazareth – assuming that Jesus was an early riser at 6am local time on the dot!

April 5 AD 33 was the date that Jesus rose from the dead. We know this for the following reasons:

- Luke chapter 3 verse 1 tells us that John the Baptist started baptising in the fifteenth year of Roman Emperor Caesar Tiberius.
- Historians tell us that Caesar Tiberius became emperor after Caesar Augustus on 19 August 14 and ruled until AD 37. Add fifteen years to AD 14 and you get to AD 29.
- Jesus was therefore baptised sometime in AD 29 or possible AD 30.
- Reading John 2:13 & 23, John 6:4 and John 11:55 & 12:1 we discover there were three separate Passovers during the time of Jesus's public work.
- Christ therefore died sometime between AD 33 and AD 34.
- According to the Four Gospels, Jesus was crucified and died a few hours before the start of a Jewish Sabbath.

- Passover always occurred on a full moon; therefore, we need to find a Friday when it happened using astronomical projections.
- Passover occurs once a year on Nisan 14. There are two possible dates: Friday 7 April 30, or Friday 3 April 33. It can only be Friday 3 April 33 as John would have baptised Jesus around AD 29–30 which is not enough time in which to fit in three Passovers if you picked 7 April 30.
- The resurrection therefore happened on Sunday 5 April 33. This was Julius Caesar's calendar of 45 BC aka the Julian calendar. It was replaced by the Gregorian calendar after 15 October 1582 in England.

The Good Confession

We agree with the Apostles and believe that there is only one Healer who is made of both flesh and spirit, born and unborn, GOD in the flesh, true life surrounded by death, son of Mary and Son of GOD, initially experiencing suffering then afterwards beyond suffering – Jesus the Christ our RULER.

For our GOD, Jesus the Christ:

- Was conceived in Mary's womb according to the pre-planning of GOD and by the Holy Spirit
- Is physically descended from the line of David according to ancestry
- Is the Son of GOD according to the will and power of GOD
- Was born the son of Mary when she was still a virgin
- Ate and drank among us, both before being killed and after being raised up to life again
- Was baptised by John in order that all righteousness might be fulfilled by him
- Was nailed and crucified for us in his physical body under Pontius Pilate and Herod the Tetrarch
- Died in full sight of persons in heaven, on earth, and under the earth

- Was physically and spiritually raised from the dead when his Father raised him up
- Was touched and handled by his disciples after his resurrection. His disciples then saw that he was composed of flesh whilst being spiritually united with the Father at the same time. For this reason, his disciples also treated death with the same contempt.

He suffered all these things for our sakes, so that we might be saved and likewise be raised up from the dead by the Father if we exercise trust in Jesus the Christ.

He has raised up a standard for all ages through his resurrection, to rally together his holy and faithful people whether among Jews or non-Jews, in the one body of the Community of GOD's people.
